With perfect weather, more than 500 members of the Greater Boston LGBTQ sports community celebrated the final days of summer and supported Victory Programs' mission to open doors to recovery, hope and community for individuals and families facing homelessness, addiction and HIV/AIDS and other chronic illnesses. The event drew a lively crowd with a live DJ, dancing, outdoors games like corn hole and giant Jenga, a gourmet food truck, an on-site raffle and for the first time a bachelor auction featuring five eligible gents paired with prepackaged date-night delights, including an afternoon sail, dinner and a show and tickets to Lady Gaga's "Joanne" world tour. Guests were also invited to participate in a superhero-themed costume contest.
